

In December 2007, GeoSpectrum signed a supplier agreement with Hydrosience Technologies Inc. of Texas. This agreement follows Hydrosience's announcement at the SEG meeting in San Antonio that it has opened a manufacturing facility for seismic streamers in Guadalajara, Mexico. Under the terms of the agreement, GeoSpectrum will supply Hydrosience with hydrophones and also set up Hydrosience to manufacture the GeoSpectrum M2 hydrophone in its Guadalajara facility.