

In October 2007, in order to meet the increasing demand for its seismic hydrophones, Geospectrum moved its manufacturing operation to 10 Akerley Boulevard in the Burnside Industrial Park. The larger facility and new manufacturing and test equipment enable GeoSpectrum to produce 1,500 hydrophones per day.